

A woman with dark curly hair, wearing a light blue lab coat over a dark patterned top, is focused on her work in an aquaculture facility. She is holding a large, light-colored mesh net. The background shows industrial equipment, pipes, and bright overhead lights, creating a professional and scientific atmosphere.

MASTER'S DEGREE

MARINE STUDIES (AQUACULTURE)

ON CAMPUS

MARINE INSTITUTE

MASTER'S DEGREE

MARINE STUDIES (AQUACULTURE)

FULL TIME OR PART TIME

Gain the skills in strategic planning, decision-making, and management needed to thrive as an aquaculture leader. Enhance your expertise and advance your career in this rapidly growing industry.

Program Length in Years	Route	Practical Experience	Start Date
2 1st year on campus 2nd year online	COURSE WORK	INTERNSHIP	SEPT.

Please scan the code for information about

- admissions
- tuition
- deadlines
- how to apply

learnatmi.ca
recruitment@mi.mun.ca

